THE NEWS OF THE WEEK.

A Daily Resume of Latest Happenings.

MAY 15.

The old members of the Democratic Committee at Lexington are resisting Chairman Young's order removing them.

Eight white citizens of Cross county, Ark., are in jail at Helena, charged by the Federal Government with conspiring to drive negroes from the country.

The Virginia House of Representatives has passed the bill appropriating $10,000 for a bronze statue of Gen. R. E. Lee for Statuary Hall in the National Capitol.

About 9,000 emigrants have arrived at Hamburg this week for transportation to the United States. Extra steamers are necessary to accommodate the unusual number.

Employees of labor in Kansas City have organized to combat the labor unions of that city. They will refuse to deliver goods to places discriminating against nonunion men.

The total appropriations at the second session of the Fifty-seventh Congress amounted to $768,968,500. The appropriations for both sessions of the Congress amount to $1,533,933,002.

Myron T. Herrick, of Cleveland, will not be the running mate of President Roosevelt next year, according to Senator Hanna, because it is not the desire of either Herrick or Roosevelt.

Gov. Beckham has refused to commute the sentence of John Black, the negro murderer of Louisville. Similar action was taken in the case of William McCarty, the Lexington wife murderer.

Finding a leak in a bottle of what they supposed to be whiskey five employees of the Adams Express Company at Cincinnati took a drink from a package in transit. One of them died a few minutes afterwards and the other four are in a serious condition.

The question of Tennessee's loyalty to the Union is involved in the settlement of war claims of the State against the Federal Government. A meeting of commissions was held yesterday in Washington and a decision is expected today.

The rush of buying orders in the New York cotton market yesterday was the greatest ever witnessed in any cotton market, and prices reached new high records for the season. The volume of business broke all records, reaching 1,000,000 bales.

With the additional returns received last night, Mr. Chin's majority over Mr. Greene in the race for Appellate Court Clerk was reduced from 4,735 to 4,238. There was no material change in the standing of the candidates in the races for Attorney General and Superintendent of Public Instruction. Messrs. Hays and Fugate leading in about the same proportion as heretofore reported.

A continuance until June 4 was ordered in the habeas corpus case of Curtis Jett at Winchester by Judge J. M. Benton. The absence from the State of J. J. C. Black, on whose information the warrants for Jett's arrest are alleged to have been sworn out by Sam Jett and Tom Cockrell, was the reason for the continuance. Judge Benton, in ruling on the matter, said that the record furnished at least a strong suggestion that the petitioner had committed a public offense in Breathitt county and he considered it proper to hear testimony. County Judge Hargis and Sheriff Ed Callahan, of Breathitt, were not present, though they were in Jackson, it is said, when the summonses were served.

MAY 16.

In the face of recent denials, it is reported in Washington that a resolution indorsing Roosevelt will be introduced in the Ohio State Republican Convention next month, and that the Hanna men will vigorously oppose it.

President Roosevelt yesterday participated in the dedication of a monument at San Francisco, commemorative of Admiral Dewey's victory in Manila Bay, and last night left the Golden Gate to spend several days in the Yosemite Valley.

A comprehensive programme, embracing a wide range of topics bearing on the commercial and industrial welfare of the State, has been arranged for the State commercial convention, which is to be held in this city June 2, 3 and 4. Additional details of the Jewish massacre at Kishinev, Russia, were brought to America yesterday by Jacob Friedman, a refugee, who saw his grandfather clubbed to death before his own door. Friedman estimated the number of Jews killed in the massacre at fully 500.

A bloodless shooting affray occurred in Jackson, Ky., as the result of taunts cast at Stewart Hager by South Strong. The former sent a bullet through Strong's coat and latter defied arrest. When Deputy Sheriff Elijah Noble attempted to capture Hager an exchange of shots followed and no arrest was made.

The Hill Top Improvement Association at Columbus, O., has refused to participate in the usual decoration of Confederate graves at Camp Chase, a member of the association declaring that the war "would not be over until the Confederacy recognized the Fourteenth and Fifteenth amendments to the Constitution."

Special Agent W. F. Conger has reported to the Post-office Department that the citizens of Gallatin, Tenn., deprecate the recent holding of Allgood, the negro rural route carrier, and want to fix the responsibility on the guilty persons.

Postmaster General Payne said, however, the route would be discontinued.

At a meeting of the Republican State Central Committee held in Louisville yesterday it was decided to hold a convention here on July 15 to nominate candidates for State offices. Delegates will be selected in the counties on the Saturday proceeding, and the basis of representation will be one delegate for every 100 votes cast in the last general election.

Chairman Allen W. Young, of the Democratic State Central and Executive Committees, has presented to the Court of Appeals an affidavit made by Charles M. Moacham, stating that he had ordered the suspension of the primary injunction case litigation and had authorized no one to reinstate the case. Mr. Young asks for appropriate action on the affidavit.

An agreement is about to be made between the Burley Tobacco Growers' Association and the Louisville Tobacco Warehouse Company by which the entire output of the Burley tobacco districts of Kentucky, Indiana, Ohio and West Virginia will be handled in Louisville. The association is an organization of farmers which will buy from the growers at a standard price fixed for five years in advance. The warehouse contract involves the handling of 140,000 hogstons each year.

MAY 17.

Three children were burned to death in a fire which destroyed a tenement house in Boyle county. The excitement in the cotton market continued yesterday. Prices have gone up about $5 a bale since last Saturday.

Erasmus Moody, colored, convicted of killing Rachel Rogers, in Louisville a year ago, was sentenced to serve life imprisonment.

Mrs. A. E. Leland, of Cincinnati, angered by an adverse decision of Judge Lucdera, attempted to blind him by throwing cayenne pepper in his eyes.

William McCarty, the Lexington wife murderer, cheated the galleys by swallowing poison and died in spite of the efforts of several physicians to revive him.

A new oil and gas concern, to include sixteen companies in Indiana, Ohio and Pennsylvania, will be incorporated in Pennsylvania at once with a capital of $6,000,000.

At Flemingsburg yesterday Alvan Burgess was found guilty of killing Walter Pack, aged fifteen years, and was given a sentence of twelve years in the State penitentiary.

The municipal Democratic primary in Nashville resulted in the nomination of a ticket indorsed by the Committee of One Hundred, which has been making war on the sporting element.

A party of Americans stormed the stage in a Manila theater and broke up the performance because one of the actors, following the requirements of the play, tore down an American flag.

The employees of labor in Louisville have organized for mutual protection. The conferences have been in secret, but the largest interests are concerned. It is announced that there is no intention to attract labor.

At Lagrange, Morris Kelley, who is a Medical student in Louisville, returned home unexpectedly in the night and was shot and probably fatally wounded by his father, who mistook him for an intruder.

A disposition to discredit the reported hold-up of the negro rural mail carrier at Gallatin, Tenn., is shown by the Post-office Department and Postmaster General Payne may reconsider his determination to abolish the route.

Gen. Nelson A. Miles, writing to the Army and Navy Journal, declares that he visited the Philippines in an official capacity by order of the President. In his letter he deprecates Philippine cruelties, and says that those who committed them were not representative of the American army.

In the Appellate Court at Frankfort yesterday State Chairman Young made a formal motion to set aside the order restraining the motion and petition for a rehearing in the Moacham anti-primary case. A response was filed by Mr. John W. Ray, and the court took the motion and response under advisement.

Former State Senator Charles F. Boshé, of St. Louis, yesterday recited to Circuit Attorney Folk his connection with the buying and selling of legislation in Missouri, naming many prominent lobbyists in his story. He said he joined the lobbyists in 1889, since which time he estimated his aggregate earnings at $15,000.

Mrs. J. B. Marcum returned to her home in Jackson yesterday, after visiting Lexington in an effort to secure legal counsel for the prosecution of her husband's alleged assassin, Curtis Jett. She expressed a desire that the Governor appoint a special Judge, Sheriff and Commonwealth's Attorney to try the case and also furnish soldiers for the protection of the witnesses at the trial.

MAY 18.

The annual encampment of the Kentucky Department, G. A. R., will be held in Louisville this week, beginning Tuesday morning.

Secretary Moody is said to have become tired of his duties as the head of the Navy Department and to be thinking of resigning.

The investigation of the suicide of Wm. McCarty, the condemned wife murderer, at Lexington was postponed Saturday until Monday.

Former Mayor Ames of Minneapolis, has been sentenced to six years at hard labor in the State penitentiary for corruption of office.

Miss Ellen M. Stone has written a letter to the State Department at Washington demanding damages from the Turkish Government on account of her capture and imprisonment by brigands.

Eight persons were injured by a mysterious gasoline explosion on the yacht Vagabond in the Hudson river, New York. The injured include Mrs. J. B. Gibson, the owner of the vessel. After the explosion the craft caught fire and sank.

Mr. Willard Mitchell called at Democratic headquarters at Frankfort Saturday and conceded the nomination of Mr. N. B. Hays for Attorney General. He has asked the privilege of delivering to Mr. Hays his certificate of nomination, and says he will speak for the party ticket when the campaign opens.

The State Department announces that it is powerless to do anything for the relief of the Jews at Kishinev, Bessarabia. On this Government's request that relief funds be admitted for distribution among sufferers, and consequently no occasion for relief.

The United Confederate Veterans will meet in New Orleans Tuesday of this week. Savannah and St. Louis have decided not to extend an invitation for the next reunion. The field is said to be open to Louisville and Washington. The Louisville camp decided recently not to extend an invitation.

The motion for a writ of prohibition requiring Judge Cantrill to vacate the bench in the "Caleb

Powers case will be made before the Court of Appeals Tuesday by the Commonwealth. It is believed at Frankfort that Circuit Judge Benton, of Winchester, will be asked to try the case in the event Judge Cantrill is required to vacate.

At the examination of teachers at Barbourville it developed that a number of the applicants for certificates had been supplied in advance with the question lists, pay-therefor $12 to $14 each. A young man accused of making the sales has left town. A similar state of affairs was discovered at Grayson Saturday and warrants for several persons have been issued. It is said that men of some prominence will be implicated.

The Courier-Journal has published an exhaustive story of the troubles in Breathitt county, obtained by a staff correspondent sent there to make a thorough investigation. It makes clear the imperative necessity of putting an end to the intolerable condition of affairs existing in the county. The investigation was careful, and the record is impartial, and it should engage the earnest attention of every citizen of the State.

MAY 19.

The centennial of the admission of Ohio into the Union is to be celebrated at Chillicothe this week with an elaborate programme.

The Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen will begin today in Denver a ten-days' secret session, attended by 2,000 delegates.

Claude O'Brien, the boy murderer, in the Lexington jail under sentence of death, is seriously ill. He has symptoms of typhoid fever.

Members of patriotic societies in Washington will present a resolution to Secretary Root opposing the destruction of the walls of Manila.

Attorney General Gates, of Tennessee, is in Washington to ask for a final decree from the Supreme Court in the Virginia-Tennessee boundary dispute.

A new independent distillery with a capacity of 6,000 bushels of corn daily is to be built at Peoria, Ill., by Louisville, Cincinnati and Terre Haute, Ind., whiskey men.

Hermis, the great Eastern champion race-horse, has been sold to E. R. Thomas, of New York, for $60,000. This is the highest price paid for a thoroughbred horse in years.

Information from Manila is to the effect that Capt. Overton and Private Noyes, who were killed at Sacatulan, May 15, met death at the hands of fifty insurgent prisoners they were guarding.

Thomas Marcum, of Muskogee, I. T., brother of the late J. B. Marcum, of Jackson, has written a letter to Lexington denying the statement of Judge Hargis that the Marcum family has been prominent in feud troubles. Mr. Marcum makes a plea for the enforcement of the law in Breathitt county, saying he wants the guilty punished that the innocent may live in peace.

No solution has yet been found for the Louis Yeager murder mystery near Hemlock, Ind. The authorities have failed to locate the mysterious woman who is said to have been in the youth's company at the time of the murder.

Seymour W. Tulloch's charges of irregularities in the Postoffice Department were made public in full yesterday. They had already been placed in the hands of Postmaster General Payne. Among the many alleged irregular practices he cites is the assertion that a voucher was drawn and paid for furniture for use in a Cuban or Porto Rican office bought from a company "without much capital" which had not yet manufactured the furniture.

The effort to run the street cars at Bridgeport, Conn., with nonunion men yesterday caused a riot, in which at least 15 men were injured. The cars were stoned by men of strikers and their sympathizers and the effort to run them was abandoned. The Sheriff will put on 100 special deputies today, and if they are unable to preserve the peace he will ask for troops. During the riot yesterday Mayor Mulvihill was struck by a stone while interfering in behalf of the strikers.

A Farmer Straightened Out. "A man living on a farm near here came in a short time ago completely doubled up with rheumatism. I handed him a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and told him to use it freely and if not satisfied after using it he need not pay a cent for it," says C. P. Rayder, of Pottsville, N. Y. "A few days later he walked into the store as straight as a string and handed me a dollar saying, 'give me another bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I want it in the house all the time for it cured me.'" For sale by A. M. Hughes.

OLDEST MAN IN AMERICA

Says: "Peruna Has Been My Stand-by For Many Years."

Mr. Isaac Brock, the Oldest Man in the United States.

Mr. Isaac Brock, of McLennan county, Tex., has attained the great age of 112 years, having been born in 1791. He is an ardent friend to Peruna and speaks of it in the following terms:

"Dr. Hartman's remedy, Peruna, I have found to be the best, it not only relieves me of my cough, cold, catarrh and diarrhoea."

"Peruna has been my stand-by for many years, and I attribute my good health and my extreme age to this remedy. It exactly meets all my requirements."

"I have come to rely upon it almost entirely for the many little things for which I need medicine. I believe it to be especially valuable to old people."

Isaac Brock.

Catarrh is the greatest enemy of old age. A person entirely free from catarrh is sure to live to a hale and hearty old age. A free book on catarrh sent by The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, O.

Man can do much toward making the conditions right for the animals which enter into his farming operations. In a few generations, under careful handling and poor feeding, even the best blood degenerates and makes scrubs.

The X-Rays.

Recent experiments, by practical tests and examination with the aid of the X-Rays, establish it as a fact that Catarrh of the Stomach is not a disease of itself, but that it results from repeated attacks of indigestion. "How Can I Cure My Indigestion?" Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is curing thousands. It will cure you of indigestion and dyspepsia, and prevent or cure Catarrh of the Stomach. Kodol digests what you eat—makes the stomach sweet. Sold by the Louisa Drug Co., Dr. J. D. Biggs, Mgr.

Nails and Wire.

Merchants of the surrounding country can save money by buying their nails and barbed or smooth wire, as well as almost anything else in the hardware line, of the Snyder Hardware Company, Louisa.

What is Foley's Kidney Cure?

Answer: It is made from a prescription of a leading Chicago physician, and one of the most eminent in the country. The ingredients are the purest that money can buy, and are scientifically combined to get their utmost value. Sold by Louisa Drug Co.

A sober second thought is better than a drunken first one.

A Lesson in Health.

Healthy kidneys filter the impurities from the blood, and unless they do this good health is impossible. Foley's Kidney Cure makes sound kidneys and will positively cure all forms of kidney and bladder disease. It strengthens the whole system. Sold by Louisa Drug Co.

Love looks through a window; envy through a keyhole.

From a Cat Scratch

on the arm, to the worst sort of a burn, sore or boil, DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is a quick cure. In buying Witch Hazel Salve, be particular to get DeWitt's—this is the salve that heals without leaving a scar. A specific for blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles. Sold by the Louisa Drug Co., Dr. J. D. Biggs, Mgr.

Seventy-nine per cent of the population of the United States were born within the State or territory of their present residence.

GREATLY ALARMED

By a Persistent Cough, but Permanently Cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mr. H. P. Burbage, a student at law, in Greenville, S. C., had been troubled for four or five years with a continuous cough which he says, "greatly alarmed me, causing me to fear that I was in the first stage of consumption." Mr. Burbage, having seen Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised, concluded to try it. Now read what he says of it: "I soon felt a remarkable change and after using two bottles of the twenty-five cent size was permanently cured." Sold by A. M. Hughes.

Hauling Wanted.
